

Tiedemann Wealth Management and Presidio Capital Advisors Combine Firms to Create Leading National Investment and Wealth Advisor

New York and San Francisco – August 8, 2016 Tiedemann Wealth Management (TWM), a New York-based wealth advisor overseeing $9 billion in client assets, and Presidio Capital Advisors (PCA), a San Francisco-based wealth advisor and subsidiary of The Presidio Group with approximately $4 billion in assets, announced today that they have entered into a definitive agreement to join forces. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

The combined firm will operate under the Tiedemann Wealth Management brand with approximately $13 billion in assets under advisement and offices in New York, San Francisco, Dallas, Palm Beach, Wilmington, DE and Washington, D.C.

Michael Tiedemann, CEO of TWM, and Craig Smith, President of TWM, will maintain their roles as CEO and President of the combined firm.

“This is a very positive development for our clients who will benefit from the resources and expertise of two of the country’s leading investment and wealth advisory firms. We are now on the ground in the financial, technology, energy and political centers of the U.S.,” said Michael Tiedemann. “Tiedemann and Presidio share a single focus: partner with clients to provide them with objective advice and protect and grow their wealth for generations.”

“We are proud to join forces with a firm that shares our values of accountability, transparency and focus on results, along with the same dedication and passion to a high-touch, clients-first approach,” said Brodie Cobb, Founder and CEO of The Presidio Group, who will join Tiedemann’s Board of Directors. “This partnership enables us to provide our clients with deeper and expanded investment, estate planning and trust resources and services.”

Craig Smith, President of Tiedemann Wealth Management, added, “We are all very excited about broadening our talent pool to further enhance the services we provide and our overall client experience. We take great pride in remaining committed to our private ownership structure and our completely objective approach to wealth management.”
